by the Dgp may perhaps be approved in view of the reasons assigned, viz, that the present pattern is out of date and that the cost will get reduced by the adoption of the new patterns. As regards the colour to be selected the Dgp is inclined to the view that the dark (black) shade of khaki gabardine would make up into a smart uniform especially if the shoulder straps be made in black cloth. This may be a suitable colour to be adopted.

Alteration in the Full Dress Uniform of Police Officers.

9) I beg to submit herewith a letter received from the Inspector General of Police in the matter of a change in the Full Dress Uniform of Police officers. The present full dress uniform is stated to be heavy, hot, uncomfortable and expensive; and the Inspector General of Police suggests a new pattern similar to that of the Undress or Service Uniform made up of cloth of either of the patterns herewith submitted. Khaki gaberdine of dark (black) shade is said to make a smart uniform especially if the shoulder straps are made in black cloth. If blue cloth is preferred a gaberdine in that colour similar to the khaki pattern can probably be obtained. The samples are submitted for His Highness' gracious orders.

47) The I.G.P. has proposed certain alterations in the uniforms of all grades of Police Officers, and consequential amendments to Appendix III in Vol II of the Police Manual.

A comparative statement showing the alterations proposed is put up.

The main changes are the following:-

(1) At present there is difference in style etc between the I.G.P's uniform and the D.S.P's uniform. In the proposed rules this difference is removed and one style of uniform is proposed for all gazetted officers, the difference consisting only in the badges of rank. The I.G.P. bearing one Crown and two Stars, the D.S.P. one Crown, the A.S.P. three Stars and the Probationers two Stars.

(2) At present there are 2 kinds of uniforms- the full dress and the undress. Under the proposed rules a third kind called the working dress is to be introduced for all officers above the rank of Jamadars.

(3) The cloth to be used for Gazetted Officers and Inspectors is blue gabardine for full dress, khaki gabardine for undress and khaki for working dress.

(4) Helmet is prescribed for full dress also for all officers of and above the rank of Inspectors. It seems to be optional to use these or turbans.

(5) At present the dress for Inspectors and Sub Inspectors is the same. In the proposed rules the dress for Sub Inspectors and traffic Head Constables is different from that of Inspectors.

(6) Jamadars and Daffedars are to have the same kind of dress the difference having in badges of rank.

The patterns of the full dress uniforms had been submitted to H.H. and they were approved by H.H.

Page 4 of Office Notes

I beg to invite gracious reference to my Final Note of the 6th May 1931 regarding the alteration proposed in the Full Dress uniform of Police officers. Alternative samples of uniforms were submitted and Mr. Thumboo Chetty intimated in his D.O. letter No. 649 dated the 2nd June 1932 that the patterns had been approved. Later, detailed proposals were received from the Inspector General of Police in respect of the uniforms of all Police officers with h letter No.SC.322 dated the 19th September 1932. He has explained also when the different kinds of uniforms proposed will have to be worn in his letter of the 4th March 1933. The principal changes proposed are:-

(1) The introduction of "working dress" in addition to full dre and undress, for officers above the rank of Jamadars. For working uniform, shorts with stockings may be worn and shirt instead of coat, during the hot weather;

(2) Full dress will be in blue gaberdine, undress in khaki gabe dine and working uniform in khaki drill;

(3) One style of uniform is proposed for all gazetted officers, differences in rank being indicated by distinguishing badges. Th Inspector General will wear one crown and two stars, the Superintendent one crown, the Assistant Superintendent three stars and th Probationers two stars.

The coat of the gazetted officers will have open roll colla and be worn with collar and tie. The Inspectors, Sub Inspectors a Jamadars will wear coats with stand up closed collar.

Full dress uniform will be worn at State Receptions and Pro cessions, public Durbars and Levees, entertainments in honour of the King Emperor's and the Maharaja's Birthday and on other occasions when ordered. Officers may not be present on any of the above occasions in any dress other than Full Dress except under orders of the Inspector General.

Officers entitled to wear Durbar dress will be exempted from wearing uniforms. Undress uniform will be worn at the inspections of gazetted officers, when attending Court and when on Day Beats. Working dress may be worn on occasions not specified above.

The revised Regulations appear to be suitable and the Dewan agrees with me that they may be adopted.

INSPECTOR-GENERAL OF POLICE IN MYSORE, BANGALORE.

To

P. MAHADEVAYYA, Esq., B.A., B.L.,
Law Secretary to the Government of Mysore,
BANGALORE.

SIR,

With reference to Appendix III, Volume II of the Mysore Police Manual, Section II dealing with the Full Dress of Police Officers I have the honour to report that officers generally complain that the present full dress blue uniform is heavy, hot, uncomfortable and expensive. I may add that the pattern of it is out of date and one which has been generally discarded. With reference to the question of expense I had contemplated addressin Government to make a grant to officers of the Civil Service enter the Police Department who have to incur a comparatively heavy expenditure on a uniform which they very seldom wore. I think, however, that the situation may be met by an alteration in the style of the Full Dress Uniform; and would suggest that a new pattern be adopted similar in pattern of the Undress or Service Uniform described under Section II of the Police Manual and made up of cloth, of either of the patterns herewith submitted. One of these is a dark (black) shade of Khaki Gaberdine which I think would make up into a smart uniform especially if the shoulder straps are made in black cloth. If, however, a blue cloth is preferred a Gaberdine in that colour similar to the Khaki patterr can probably be obtained.

2. If the adoption of this style of uniform in either of the colours proposed should be approved of, the cost of full dress uniform will be very considerably reduced and the necessity of the purchase of expensive Cross and Sword Belts would be obviated as, in case of either the Dark Khaki or blue cloth being adopted, the style of uniform would go well with the ordinary Sam-Brown belt. The only difference will be that with the Khaki cloth brown riding boots will be needed while with blue it would probably be necessary to use black boots.

3. As the Birthday Ceremonies are approaching and as it is usual to wear the full dress uniform on that occasion I am anxious to obtain a decision in this matter as soon as is possible and request that I may be favoured with early orders on the subject.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

INSPECTOR GENERAL OF POLICE.

Dear Sir,

With reference to your D.O.No.P.6019 dated 18-4-1932 to the personal address of the Inspector General of Police and as personally instructed, I write to state that two sets of Police uniform in the patterns proposed by the Inspector General of Police together with a set of full dress uniform as worn at present by the Superintendents of Police are herewith sent.

Of the two new sets of uniform, one is made of Khaki Gaberdine and the other is made in blue serge. The blue uniform is much cheaper and more serviceable and the present full dress uniform is rather cumbersome and heavy. These newly designed uniforms have open collars and four pockets each. The blue uniform has to be worn with white collar and blue tie and the khaki one with a white collar and a black tie.

Silver buttons have to be worn with the blue as well as the khaki
